

Land Cover Map 2000 Conditions of Use

In accordance with an agreement with the Centre for Ecology and Hydrology (CEH), NEODC is allowed to distribute Land Cover Map 2000 data for selected test sites to NCAVEO registered partners subject to the terms and conditions below.

Additional information

Please enter your NERC award reference number (or enter 'none'):

Use of data

The data may be used for all non-commercial research/project work undertaken by the NCAVEO network, in particular to learn about cal-val issues.

Data ownership

The Dataset is a proprietary product of NERC and thus protected by Copyright law. NERC reserves all rights of ownership and copyright in the Dataset

Terms and Conditions

In the following, "you/yours" refers to you, i.e. the user of LCM2000 data via NEODC and NCAVEO.

1) You may:

1. Use this dataset only for the purposes expressly agreed in the Data Use agreement (see Use of data above).
2. Use this dataset on ANY computer(s) on the site(s) identified in the agreement. Access via a secure internal Intranet or server facility is permitted, providing that the users are NEODC/NCAVEO registered.
3. Make full or partial copies of the dataset for back-up and archive purposes only, provided you label such copies clearly with CEH's copyright notice.
4. Produce maps from the data for use in reports and discussion documents.
5. Manipulate the Land Cover Map original data as provided by CEH, for example by combining it with other data in a Geographic Information System or by map overlay, to generate a derived product.
6. Incorporate copies of the LCM2000 data, providing it is part of a derivative non-commercial product for cal/val knowledge transfer purposes only, for tutorials, reviews, scientific papers or a computer program. All data must be clearly marked as CEH copyright. All instances must be reported to CEH within 14 days of the event.

2) You may not:

1. Transfer, assign, rent, lease, sell, give or otherwise dispose of the original Dataset except as stated in this agreement.
2. Release a Product or Tradeable commodity based in whole or in part on data supplied by CEH, unless you have obtained CEH's prior written agreement, and have paid any royalties due.
3. Place images of the original data on a (public-access) Internet site, unless you apply for specific permission from CEH. This clause does not affect your rights under clause 1.6
4. Reproduce any digital or numerical data other than for back-up purposes. This clause does not affect your rights under clause 1.6
5. Reproduce, distribute or alter any documentation, other than to NEODC/NCAVEO registered users.

This clause does not affect your rights under clause 1.6

6. Export or re-export the Dataset without the appropriate United Kingdom or foreign government licence.

Data Protection Act

Information submitted in application for access to the data will be made available to The Natural Environment Research Council (NERC), and its delegated authorities, i.e. the NERC Earth Observation Data Centre and the British Atmospheric Data Centre (BADC) and their host organisation, the Council for the Central Laboratory of the Research Councils for the purposes of tracking data usage and of improving the service.

Acknowledgements

Where the data are used in a presentation of publication, an acknowledgement must be given. A sentence should be given along the lines of - "Land Cover Map 2000 data are provided courtesy of the Centre of Ecology and Hydrology, via the NERC Earth Observation Data Centre (NEODC) and the NERC Network for Calibration and Validation of EO data (NCAVEO)" .

For academic, refereed publications - you are required to submit an abstract of the paper to CEH before publication. If support and advice is provided beyond that normally expected of a data provider, then either co-authorship may be requested, or a consultancy fee charged. For non-refereed papers, an abstract or copy of the first page must be submitted to CEH. This clause does not affect your rights under clause 1.6.

Details of presentations and publications

Please send details of all presentations and publications, for which you have made use of these data, to the NEODC. This information is required for the Data Centre's Annual Report to NERC. Presentations include those given at conferences, seminars and colloquia; publications include those appearing in books, newspapers, magazines, Masters and PhD theses, conference proceedings and papers appearing in journals.
